1. It is becoming increasingly evident that American dependence on foreign oil, especially oil from countries that support and/or export radical Islamic ideology and terrorism, provides a considerable portion of the transportation sector, at least in the following petroleum products: gasoline, diesel, and kerosene. While there have been some efforts to diversify the transportation sector, neither ethanol nor biodiesel provide any alternative to petroleum-based transportation. We oppose each of the following petroleum products and encourage you to vote away from foreign oil dependence.
