1. It is becoming increasingly evident that American dependence on foreign oil, especially oil from countries that support and/or export radical Islamic ideology and terrorism, provides a considerable portion of the transportation sector, at least in the following petroleum products: gasoline, diesel, and jet fuel. While there have been some efforts to diversify the transportation sector, neither the federal government nor the states have provided adequate support to develop alternative transportation options. It is your responsibility to oppose each of the following and to support the development of alternative transportation options away from foreign oil dependence.
